NOTES FOR THE INFORMATION OF APPLICANTS INCLUDING CONDITIONS OF APPOINTMENT

1. This is a new application – please read all the notes and complete form in full.
2. A passport sized photograph must be attached to the application form as requested.
3. All applicants must be registered with the Teaching Council – see hereunder.

Teaching Council Registration

It is now mandatory that all those undertaking the position of Oral/Practical Examiner for the 2024 examinations and subsequent years are registered on the Register of Teachers maintained by the Teaching Council in order to comply with The National Vetting Bureau (Children and Vulnerable Persons) Act 2012.

What to do if I am registered?

*Complete your registration details - registration number, name as it appears on the register and renewal date - on the application form. The SEC will validate the registration details against the register. Please ensure that you complete these details as failure to do so may delay processing your application. If you are registered at the time of applying and are subsequently appointed, it is your responsibility to ensure that your registration does not lapse and that you are registered at the time of the examinations.

What to do if I am not registered?

Complete the application form for the position of Oral/Practical Examiner in the normal way but indicate that you are not registered. Return the form to the SEC in the normal way. However, you must also apply immediately to the Teaching Council for registration and have the registration details submitted before the appointments are made in 2024.

Important Information about the Registration Process

It is each applicant's own responsibility to ensure that they are on the Register of Teachers and to provide the SEC with their registration number, when requested. The registration process, which includes a process of Garda Vetting, may take 6 -8 weeks once all required documentation has been received. Applicants are advised to apply for registration immediately. Information on the registration process, including details of registration fees, is available on the Teaching Council's website www.teachingcouncil.ie. The State Examinations Commission accepts no liability for teacher registration fees or for any applicant's inability to meet the registration and vetting requirement within the specified timeframe.

4. Appointment to the position of Examiner for the Leaving Certificate practical tests will be regarded as a contract of service. Examiners will be required to give their full time to the work over the period of appointment.
5. All examiners will be required to attend for the full duration of a training conference before the commencement of examining.
6. Appointment as examiner in any given year does not confer the right to appointment in subsequent years.
7. Travelling expenses and subsistence allowances paid to an Examiner, will be in accordance with Dept of Finance regulations. All expenses paid to contract staff engaged in the 2024 examinations, will be in accordance with published public service rates and will not be subject to deductions. Applicants should note that the public service subsistence rates and qualifying distances changed with effect from 1st April 2017. Further information is available from the Information for Contract Staff section of www.examinations.ie
8. In line with the terms of the Public Service Stability Agreement, the SEC will be applying the relevant increases to contract staff remuneration in 2024.
9. All payments on foot of this appointment will be made through an electronic money transfer system (i.e. Paypath). We will collect your bank details at a later stage. It is not possible to arrange payment other than to a bank account, therefore acceptance of payment to a bank account is a condition of employment.
10. It is intended to issue practical examiner appointments as required during 2024.
11. In the appointment of Examiners/Monitors to project/practical coursework, preference will be given to those applicants who have also applied to mark written examination components.

12. All examiners are required to provide their mobile phone number and current email address as we may need to contact you prior to or during the marking process.
13. If you fail to comply fully with the SEC's Instructions or if you act in a way which jeopardises the security or integrity of the examinations or if you act in a way which jeopardises the performance of the candidates, you are liable to be dismissed and you may also be refused any future appointment. If you are dismissed, you shall have no claim whatsoever against the SEC for remuneration or expenses.
14. Applicants should note that all applications will be considered fairly and impartially by the State Examinations Commission. Applicants giving incorrect information will be disqualified. Canvassing will lead to the application being disqualified.
15. The following persons are not eligible for appointment or to undertake examining duties:
 - (a) Unregistered teachers (i.e. those not registered with the Teaching Council)
 - (b) Teachers who have taken early retirement under Strand 1 of the Early Retirement Scheme for teachers.
 - (c) Teachers who are on paid Statutory Maternity Leave at the time of Conferences or during the Examining period.
 - (d) Teachers who are on paid/unpaid sick leave
 - (e) Teachers who are on Suspension/Administration Leave.
 - (f) Teachers in receipt of disability pension. *

* Applications from teachers in receipt of disability pension will be considered on receipt of a completed medical report form. This form is available on request from (090) 644 2813/2825 or in the Recruitment Section of www.examinations.ie.
16. If subsequent to confirming acceptance of appointment you become unavailable, you should contact the SEC immediately by phone and confirm your unavailability by letter, fax or e-mail. Likewise if, subsequent to applying or confirming acceptance of an appointment, you experience any change in circumstances (see note 15) which would render you ineligible for appointment, you must notify the SEC immediately.
17. Where an examiner feels that his/her work assignment may inhibit his/her capacity to perform his/her duties in a fair and objective manner he/she should bring the matter to the attention of the relevant Section, State Examinations Commission (SEC) giving details. Where the SEC is satisfied, on the basis of the information provided and its own enquiries that the performance of the examiner may be compromised, every effort will be made to resolve the matter by re-assigning the examiner.
18. The completed application form should be addressed to "Practicals Section, State Examinations Commission, Cornamaddy, Athlone, Co Westmeath, N37 TP65". It should reach the Commission not later than 19 January 2024. Applications will continue to be accepted after the closing date. However late applications will only be considered if vacancies remain after offers of appointment have been made to all suitable applicants whose applications were received before the closing date. Claims of postal loss or delay must be supported by a certificate of postage. Postage must be paid on all applications.

ART PRACTICAL – NEED TO AMEND TO TAKE ACCOUNT OF NEW SPECIFICATION

In line with the revised assessment framework for Leaving Certificate Art, the practical coursework/practical components will be examined in schools in June.

LCVP

The LCVP Portfolio of coursework will be marked separately from the written paper. The marking period for the Portfolio of coursework in 2024 will be from Saturday 23rd March to Wednesday 24th April.

Applications to mark the written component of this subject should be submitted on the written examiner application form which will be available on www.examinations.ie

CANDIDATE ACCESS TO ORAL/PRACTICAL MARKS – NEW FROM 2019

The SEC will continue to provide examination candidates with access to their component marks, including oral and practical marks, following the issue of the provisional results and in advance of the Leaving and Junior Cycle appeals closing dates. The mark provided for each component will be the mark authorised by the Chief Examiner and credited to the candidate for the purpose of calculating the grade. (In certain subjects, the mark awarded by the examiner will have been subject to a process of moderation as part of the standardisation of examiners' work and/or the mark may have been subject to a weighting applied to that component as part of the grading process.) This information is being provided to candidates in the spirit of the Data Protection legislation which means that candidates can apply to the SEC for access to copies of all of their personal data including their examination scripts.

Irish versions of the Application Form and Notes are available on request.
