9. Data Protection

The State Examinations Commission (SEC) is a registered data controller with the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner. Your Personal data will be processed in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Acts.

The SEC will process this data for the purposes of the administration of your application to a contract staff position with the SEC. We will also retain your details and may use these details from time to time to contact you to advise you of recruitment opportunities with the State Examinations Commission.

You have the right to request access to your personal data as well as the right to rectify and, where applicable, erase any inaccurate, incomplete or immaterial personal data processed by the SEC.

Details on the State Examinations Commission Data Protection Notice can be located on our website https://www.examinations.ie/data-protection/

10. The SEC will consider all applications fairly and impartially in line with the requirements of the role of superintendent.

CONDITIONS OF APPOINTMENT AS SUPERINTENDENT AT THE CERTIFICATE EXAMINATIONS

- 1. Appointment to the position of Superintendent will be regarded as a contract of service. You must be free from other commitments during the entire period of the examinations i.e. from the 3rd to the 24th of June 2025 (which may include Sunday 15th of June). Requests for leave of absence for an occasional day, part of day or days during the examinations will not be considered.
- 2. Normally only teachers at second level will be considered for appointment.
- 3. The following persons will not be eligible for appointment or to undertake the duties of the superintendent-
 - (a) School Principals and/or Deputy Principals who are required by the school authorities to remain in school.
 - (b) Teachers in receipt of disability pension or who have taken early retirement under Strand 1 of the Early Retirement Scheme for Teachers.
 - (c) Teachers who are on paid Statutory Maternity Leave during the period of the examinations or who are on paid/unpaid Sick Leave.
 - (d) Teachers who are on Suspension/Administration Leave.
 - (e) Teachers not registered with the Teaching Council (see 4 below).

Applications from teachers in receipt of disability pension will be considered on receipt of a completed medical report form. This form is available on request from (090) 6442789/2790/2792/2892/2893 or E-mail; superintendents@examinations.ie or at www.examinations.ie.

4. Teaching Council Registration

It is now mandatory that all those undertaking the position of Superintendent for the certificate examinations and subsequent years are registered on the Register of Teachers maintained by the Teaching Council in order to comply with the National Vetting Bureau (Children and Vulnerable Persons) Act 2012.

What to do if I am registered?

Complete your registration details - registration number, name as it appears on the register and renewal date - on the application form. The SEC will validate the registration details against the register. Please ensure that you complete these details as failure to do so may delay processing your application. If you are registered at the time of applying and are subsequently appointed, it is your responsibility to ensure that your registration does not lapse and that you are registered at the time of the examinations in June.

What to do if I am not registered?

If you are not registered with the Teaching Council at this time, you should apply immediately to the Council for registration. Once registration has been completed you may then submit a fully completed application form at which point the SEC will consider your application for a place on the reserve panel.

Important Information about the Registration Process

It is each applicant's own responsibility to ensure that they are registered with the Teaching Council and can provide the SEC with their registration number. The registration process, which includes a process of Garda Vetting, may take 6-8 weeks once all required documentation has been received. Information on the registration process, including details of registration fees, is available on the Teaching Council's website www.teachingcouncil.ie. The State Examinations Commission accepts no liability for teacher registration fees or for any applicant's inability to meet the registration and vetting requirement within the specified timeframe.

- 5. It is a condition of appointment that you provide an active mobile phone number and email address as we may need to contact you at short notice in the lead up to or during the examinations.
- 6. All payments in respect of your work as superintendent will be made by electronic fund transfer system (i.e. paypath). We will collect your bank account details at a later stage.
- 7. Travelling expenses and subsistence allowances paid to Superintendents will be in accordance with Department of Finance regulations. All approved expenses paid to contract staff engaged on the 2025 examinations will be in accordance with published public service rates. Further information is available from the Information for Contract Staff Section of www.examinations.ie
- 8. Decisions regarding the assignment of superintendents to schools will be made by the SEC by reference to the school in which you are currently teaching and/or the school(s) in which you have previously taught as well as previous service as an SEC superintendent.
- 9. You will accept assignment to whatever examination centre (location and duration) the SEC deems appropriate. If appointed, you will receive details of the examination centre to which you are being assigned, in mid May 2025.
- 10. In a minority of cases a Superintendent may be required to supervise an examination session outside of the normal timetable due to candidates sitting subjects timetabled for the same time.
- 11. Should you become unavailable please contact the SEC, immediately. Likewise, if, subsequent to applying or confirming acceptance of an appointment, you experience any change in circumstances (see note 3) which would render you ineligible for appointment, you must notify the SEC immediately.
- 12. If, for any reason, you fail to attend at the designated examination centre on a particular day or for a particular examination session, your appointment will be terminated.
- 13. All forms of canvassing (by phone or letter) whether in relation to appointment, location or type of centre or length of assignment, will lead to disqualification.

If you fail to comply fully with the SEC's Instructions or if you act in a way which jeopardises the security or integrity of the examinations or if you act in a way which jeopardises the performance of the candidates, you are liable to be dismissed and you may also be refused any future appointment. If you are dismissed, you shall have no claim whatsoever against the SEC for remuneration or expenses.
